

To whom it may concern:

Director of Workforce Development
Oakland County Michigan Works

I, Karen Thornton, CEO Detroit Delivers would like to address an prolific employee on his positiveness toward me and my new start-up business Detroit Delivers.

Mr. Jeffrey Granat, Business Service Specialist, Oakland County Michigan Works in Southfield has demonstrated great works with enthusiasm, and assisted with great resources from the very point of contact with Southfield, Oakland County Works. Jeffrey demonstrated and assisted me with every facet of me trying to get started even with assist with creating and listing every intern job I need for my business Detroit Delivers to continue to thrive.

I just want to take time out to personally thank Mr. Jeffrey Granat with a positive note letting him know everything he has put forth 100% effort in assisting me and my business to obtain new interns to date goes unnoticed and favored by his coworkers.

Mr. Granat and I are still plugging along daily and trying to get the proper employees screened so that they can become part of Detroit Delivers team.

Mr. Granat is the kind of intern employee I am trying to obtain dedicated, a hard-worker, and driven to excel in excellence no matter how busy his schedule is.

I am pleased with the work that Oakland County Michigan Works! Southfield is providing in assisting me with intern assistance.
